MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, December 27, 1753.

MADRID, September 6.

THE 26th paſt an Order, ſign'd by his Majeſty, was iſſued from the Secretary of State's Office, forbidding the Subjects of this Crown to carry on any Commerce with the Danes. There is Advice from Cadiz, that the Hon. Capt. Howe, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Dolphin, now in that Bay, having been ordered to go to the Port of Sallee, to inform himſelf of the Intention of the Moors, with regard to Great Britain, was anſwered, That their Deſign was to obſerve their Treaties with his Britannic Majeſty. The ſame Letters add, that a Dutch Ship from the Weſtward had ſeen ſix Algerines off Cape St. Mary's, which made People very uneaſy for the South-Sea Ships hourly expected. M. Cloppenburgh, the Daniſh Conſul at Cadiz, having receiv'd Orders from his Court to leave his Catholic Majeſty's Dominions, was preparing to ſet out for London in his Way to Copenhagen.

Hamburg, Sept. 21. The Magiſtrates of Hamburg, having received Advice, that the Plague had manifeſted itſelf this Year upon the Iſland of Rhodes, (as they expreſs themſelves in an Advertiſement publiſhed here the 17th Inſtant) having given the neceſſary Orders at proper Stations, for the ſtrict Obſervance of their Edict of the 28th of January, in the Year 1752. Which directs, That no Veſſel, from any ſuſpected Quarter, ſhould be piloted into the Elbe, nor to ſuffer any Merchandizes, coming directly from the Levant, and ſuſceptible of Infection, to be unloaded; and this Notice is given, for the Information of all Maſters of Ships, and Merchants concerned in their Cargoes.

Copenhagen, Sept. 1. The 25th of laſt Month Lieutenant Colonel Longueville was put under Arreſt by the King's Order, as he was coming out of the Ship that brought him back from the Coaſt of Morocco. He is charged with having exceeded his Inſtructions, and behaving with ſuch Precipitation as proved the only Cauſe of arreſting our Men and confiſcating our Merchandize in that Country. As to the reſt, none of thoſe that were detained Priſoners there, ſeem to complain of any ill Uſage received during their Captivity. The 24 Men that eſcaped to Saffy after the Falſter Frigate was accidently burnt, have been releaſed without Ranſom.

Copenhagen, Sept. 11. It is thought we ſhall not fail to make the Spaniards repent their treating us with the ſame Haughtineſs as they lately did the Hamburgers, for making Treaties of Friendſhip and Commerce with the States of Africa.—Our Marine is powerful enough to protect our Trade; and if the Spaniards offer to inſult or moleſt our Veſſels on or from the Ports of Morocco, Algiers, &c. Letters of Marque and Reprifals will ſpeedily be iſſued; but if Spain does not moleſt ſuch Veſſels, then we ſhall carry on a beneficial Commerce with the Coaſts of Africa, and contribute as much as lies in our Power to render Morocco in particular ſtill more formidable to the Spaniards.

Moſcow, Auguſt 16. A Courier from Conſtantinople brings Advice, that the Plague has again broke out in that City.

Conſtantinople, July 8. An Engineer, who had been many Years in the Service of the Order of Malta, brought hither a general Plan of the Fortifications of that Iſland, and particular Plans of the moſt conſiderable, which he preſented to the Grand Signior, not in the leaſt doubting he ſhould receive a great Reward; and to render it the ſuter and greater, he became a Mahometan; but his Sublime Highneſs, true to his pacific Maxims, cauſed the Plans to be burnt in his own Preſence; and as they periſhed by Fire, it is ſtrongly ſuſpected their Author has made a long Voyage by Water, inaſmuch as he has not been ſeen for ſome Time paſt.

Algiers, Sept. 10. Laſt Week a great Alarm was given by an Attempt of the Chriſtian Slaves to make their Eſcape; being inſtigated to it by a Native of Geneva, one of their Number; who under Pretence of exerciſing his Buſineſs of Watch making, procured ſeveral Tools, with which he ſawed off his own Irons and thoſe of ſome of his Companions. The Plot was diſcovered when it was on the Point of being carried into Execution: The Geneva Man, however, found Means to get out whilſt they were ſecuring the Reſt, and notwithſtanding the ſtricteſt Search in the Town and on board the Ships in the Harbour, cannot found.

Edinburg, Sept. 18. Laſt Thurſday being appointed for laying the Foundation Stone of the New Exchange of this City, by the Grand Maſter Maſon of Scotland; about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Others attending, went to a Theatre erected for them; and as ſoon as all the Maſters, Wardens, and Brethren of the ſeveral Lodges, to the Number of 672 Free and Accepted Maſons, had placed themſelves in the Galleries put up for them, and thoſe of the Foreign Lodges conducted to the Gallery aſſigned for them, the Foundation Stone, which had all the Day lain on the Pavement to be viewed by the People, was, by Order of the Subſtitute Grand Maſter, ſlung in a Tackle, and let down gradually, making three regular Stops before it came to the Ground; during which the Maſons Anthem was firſt played by the Muſic alone, and then ſung, all the Muſic and Brethren joining in the Chorus, and the Muſic continued to play the Anthem by themſelves during the reſt of the Ceremony. When the Magiſtrates were going off, the Subſtitute Grand Maſter preſented them with ſeveral of the Medals ſtruck on this Occaſion. The Brethren then marched to the Palace of Holy-Rood Houſe, amidſt ſuch immenſe Crouds of People, and innumerable Multitudes of Spectators from the Windows and Tops of Houſes, as never were known in the City on any Occaſion; and notwithſtanding the hazardous Situation which the Curioſity of many led them to, the whole was concluded without the leaſt Accident happening to any.

Edinburg, Sept. 25. Laſt Week, a Gentleman's Servant in the Country had been in Glaſgow to receive Money for his Maſter, with which he was ſetting out on his Return, when he was met with a Lady of the Town; who, after a ſhort Interview, prevailed on him to accompany her to a Houſe in the Gorbais, when ſhe found Means to eaſe him of forty Guineas: Upon miſſing which, he began to demand Reſtitution; but was anſwered with ſeveral hearty Blows on his Head, by a Fellow that ſtarted from a Concealment, and ſeemed to have a perfect Underſtanding with her Ladyſhip, which obliged the unhappy Sufferer to make a precipitate Retreat, and go ſeek Redreſs in ſome other Manner.

October 6. A Letter from Paris acquaints that a Miſſioner (one of the moſt famous Preachers in France and who had a particular Talent in Controverſy) was lately ſent to Languedoc to convert the Hugenots, who ſwarm in that Province. After the Bell was rung in, he enters the Church and only finds in it five or ſix Perſons. Nevertheleſs he goes up to the Pulpit, and ſits down for a conſiderable Time to wait the conveening of his Audience. No more of them appearing, at laſt he pulls a Flute from his Pocket, and very gravely begins to play a Tune. One of his little Congregation goes out of the Church, and acquaints the People that the Miſſionary Prieſt was gone mad, and that he was playing on the Flute in the Pulpit. The Oddneſs of the Thing made the Church fill in a ſhort Time and he continuing ſtill playing, until it was ſo full that they were ſitting on one another; then he gave a Sign to ſhut all the Doors, that none of them ſhould eſcape, and ſolemnized them for ſeven Hours without Intermiſſion. This Stratagem, and his Manner of Preaching, were ſo taking with theſe People, that, during his Miſſion, he had always thronged Audiences, and they were all grieved when he was obliged to leave them.

LONDON.

Extract of a Letter from New Haven, Auguſt 18.

"About Four o'Clock this Morning, a Sloop called the Catherine and Mary, of Pauſtow, with Slates, for Bullogne, being about eight Leagues from this Place, ſprung a Leak in a hard Gale of Wind at S. W. and not being able to keep her clear with both Pumps, at Ten ſhe bore away for Land, and with great Difficulty ran her aſhore near this Place. The Gale ſtill continuing and the Sea running high, the People attempted to get aſhore in their Boat, and put their Cloaths in her, but as ſoon as the Veſſel ſtruck, the Sea made a free Paſſage over her, and ſtove the Boat. In this Situation they got into the Rigging, expecting every Moment to be carried away in the View of great Numbers of People who did not think it poſſible to give them any Aſſiſtance. At length, moved by their Diſtreſs, a Sailor ſaid, if any Perſon would lend him a Boat, he would venture his Life to ſave them. Mr. Broker of New-Haven lent him a Boat, and three Seamen joined him. After two or three Attempts they got to the Veſſel, and brought the People ſafe on Shore."

Honeſty Rewarded!——A few Days ſince a generous, public ſpirited Gentleman, at Richmond in Surry, having loſt his Pocket Book, with One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds, in Bank Notes, in it, was found by a poor Boy, Servant to a Butcher; who immediately went to the Gentleman, and gave it him: He receiv'd it with great Civility, and Abundance of Thanks; and, feeling in his Pocket, ſaid, he had no Half Pence to reward him; and ſo, generouſly, gave the poor Boy Six-Pence——To remember him.——This Inſtance of Generoſity, ſo ſingular and remarkable, is offer'd (to all Noble Spirits) as a Pattern to them that may have the Misfortune to loſe ſo great a Sum,——and recover it again.

Sept. 22. On the 18th ult. eleven French Mariners, the Crew belonging to the Mary Anne, of Bayonne, Monſieur Caſſentar, Commander, which foundered at Sea, were taken up by Capt. Randle Wilſon, of the Brigantine Roſe, of Philadelphia, 168 Leagues to the Eaſtward of Newfoundland, in great Diſtreſs. They had been five Days at Sea in a ſmall Boat, without a Drop of Water, and only a very ſmall Quantity of Bread for their Subſiſtence.

September 22. The Hague Gazette aſſures us in a Paragraph from London, that General Wall, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador here, has given the Miniſtry freſh Aſſurances of his Court's Reſolution to give ample Satisfaction to the Owners of Engliſh Ships that may be proved to have been illegally taken by the Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas in the Weſt Indies.

September 24. It is ſaid a Treaty of Neutrality is ſigned between the Engliſh and French Eaſt-India Companies.

September, 25. We hear by a Letter from Barnſtable in Devonſhire, that as Mrs. Kipland, Wife of Mr. Kipland who keeps the King's Arms in that Town, was taking ſome Linnen out of a Drawer, and leaning her Head down, a Mouſe jump'd out of the Drawer, and faſtened on her Lip, which frightened her to that Degree, that ſhe fell down in a Fit, and expired directly.

September 26. The following remarkable Accident may ſeem almoſt incredible, but we have it given us (ſays the Printer of the Glouceſter Journal) as actually Matter of Fact, viz. As one Richard Rutt, of the Devizes, in the County of Wilts, Tyler, was at work at a Gentleman's Houſe in the Neighbourhood ſome time before Chriſtmas laſt, he had the Misfortune to ſwallow a Three-penny Nail, which continued in him till the 22d paſt at Night, when, being ſeized with a violent Cough, and ſpitting a little Blood, the Nail, which was much ruſted, came up with a great deal of Eaſe, and the Man is now perfectly well, though before, he was often taken with a Vomiting and Pain in his Stomach, eſpecially after Eating.

BOSTON.

November 6. About a Fortnight ago, a Cow at Malden bro't forth Three Calves, all full grown, and of the ſame Bigneſs and Colour. 'Tis ſaid, they will now weigh at leaſt twelve Pounds a Quarter, and will be brought to Town a few Days hence, for a Shew.

November 15. We hear from Leiceſter, that on Tueſday Night, the 30th of laſt Month, they had there, and the Towns adjacent, a violent Storm of Wind and Snow, accompanied with terrible Thunder and Lightning; whereby the Houſe of one Mr. Earl was ſtruck; and that two Dogs lying near the Fire, were kill'd by the Lightning which came down the Chimney; and tho' ſeveral Perſons were in the ſame Room, yet none of them were hurt: 'Tis ſaid the Snow was that Night above a Foot deep in the Roads.

Capt. Phœnix in his Paſſage home, put into Crooked Iſland, the 29th of October, where he met with Capt. Furnel, in a Sloop bound from Jamaica for North Carolina, who having ſprung a Leak at Sea, had put in there the 13th; and a Day or two after, his Mate and all his Men had run away in a Canoe, and left him with only two Negroe Men and two Wenches on board, who he fear'd could not keep his Veſſel long above Water.

A few Days before, one Capt. Bromley, of Boſton, bound from North Carolina for Jamaica, had put in there in Diſtreſs, having loſt her Maſt and Bolt-ſprit in a Storm on the 5th of October; a French Man of War then there had ſupplied her with a Jury Maſt, with which ſhe had proceeded on her Voyage.
